apply(ies) to use the Incident-Related Twitter Datasets subject to the following understandings, terms and conditions. These understandings, terms and conditions apply equally to all or to part of the information.

Permitted Uses

1. The information may only be used for research concerning the use and content of weblogs and social media systems. These projects may include both the open-ended analysis to better characterize the systems and their usage as well as prototype algorithms and tools that automate such analyses.
2. Products of these research projects may be published, provided the originating paper for the information used is properly identified and cited.
3. Small excerpts of the information may be displayed to others or published in a scientific or technical context, solely for the purpose of describing the research and development and related issues. Any such use shall not infringe on the rights of any third party including, but not limited to, the authors and publishers of the excerpts.

Access to the Information by Individuals

1. Access to the information by an individual person is to be controlled by that person's organization. The organization may only grant access to people working under its control, i.e., its own members, consultants to the organization, or individuals providing service to the organization.
2. The organization will maintain a list of people with current and recently-terminated access to the information.
3. An individual with access may only display the information to or share the information with persons whom his organization lists as having access to the information.
