

Israeli Journal of Humor Research: An International Journal

Vol. 1, Issue 1 2012

Table of Contents

Editorial:

The Inaugural Issue.

Ephraim Nissan, London, and Arie Sover, Ashkelon pp. 1–5

Regular Articles:

PRAGMATICS:

Garden paths, red lights and crossroads: On finding our way to understanding the cognitive mechanisms underlying jokes.

Marta Dynel, Łódź pp. 6–28
Other Keywords: Jokes; Taxonomy; Incongruity-resolution mechanisms; Garden paths; Red lights kind of jokes; Crossroads kind of jokes

LITERARY STUDIES:

2011: THE SESQUICENTENNIAL OF THE BIRTH OF AMERICA'S TOP HEBREW HUMORIST

The sweat of the (low) brow: New York Immigrant life in Gerson Rosenzweig's satire. Facets of his Talmudic parody Tractate America.

Ephraim Nissan, London pp. 29–85
Other Keywords: Jewish studies; Pastiche; Parody; Satire; Social conditions (immigrants); Trade union, strikes, immigrants labor. America (perception); America (discovery)

PSYCHOLOGY:

Extreme fear of being laughed at: components of gelotophobia

Tracey Platt, Willibald Ruch, Jennifer Hofmann, and René T. Proyer, Zurich pp. 86–106
Other Keywords: Clinical psychology; Phobia

Bibliographical Analysis:

A tentative evaluation of the spread of humor studies among journals in other domains.

Ephraim Nissan, London pp. 107–210
Other Keywords: History of the discipline; Interdisciplinary research; Bibliometrics

Book Reviews:

Studies in Political Humour, edited by Villy Tsakona and Diana Elena Popa. Amsterdam: John Benjamins, 2011.

Christie Davies, England pp. 211–212

Several further reviews will be posted soon